Co-opt Records

The Doxies
In Search of...

Catalog#
Co-opt Records # co-opt-01
Emergency Umbrella # EU 06-016
Format: CD
Release Date: October 10, 2006

the band

Brent Maness: guitar/vox
Tim Lloyd: guitar/vox
Phylshawn Johnson: drums/vox
Bryan Maness: bass/vox
Wes Wingate: keys/vox

the points

- This is The Doxies' fourth studio release in as many years.

- Features new female drummer and vocalist Phylshawn Johnson.

- Recorded at Bridge Studio in Jamestown, MO, and mixed by Tom Tatman at Catamount Recording Iowa City, IA.

tour

The Doxies will tour extensively through the US and UK this fall and plan to re-enter the studio in December.

contact

Label
Co-opt Records
Bon Black - Publicity
E:bon@co-optrecords.com
P: 573-999-4896
W: www.co-optrecords.com

Radio
Apples and Cats
Nina R. Wilson - Director of Promotion
P: 573 - 446- 7219
E: nina@emergencyumbrella.com

In Search of... the latest studio release from Columbia, Missouri's The Doxies has 11 rich tracks based on solid cornerstones of alt-country, vintage garage rock, and British Invasion era, Kinks-style Brit Pop. The album features hook laden songs with catchy melodies and lush harmonies. These wonderful pop sensibilities are juxtaposed by head nodding scorchers with enough guitar riffs and licks to milk a goat.

"(The Doxies) open up a rift in time and space when college radio was the only true form of Alternative."
-Miles of Music

"The Doxies In Search of... has hooks at every turn. Inevitable reference makers might cite The Replacements, Petty, or The Band. Or not. Regardless of the echoes of the past, the present dictates the future. Continue your search with The Doxies."
- Jeff Sweatman, KBXR

"The Doxies has evolved from Uncle Tupelo's lost little brother to its own wrecking machine, conjuring The Kinks, Wilco, and Neil Young. (In search of) is a veritable and authentic amalgamation of classic rock, indie-country, and Americana."
-Lindsey Spratt, Urban Pollution